

For the Week of October 15, 2017

CHOW Pantry suggestions for this week: Hamburger/Tuna Helper, Canned fruit, Muffin and cookie mix.

Cabaret - Start thinking of baskets you would like to make for the Cabaret. There are baskets in the coat room that people can use for the Cabaret. It will be earlier this year on November 4th.

October 20th - There will be an open house at the BC Council of Churches 1:00pm – 4:00pm. Come tour the facilities.

A BIG Thank You to Larry Taft for fixing the hot water tank by donating his time and the thermocouple to fix it. Great Stewardship work!

Crossways – Articles for November Crossways are due to Gary Zurn by October 22nd.

Stewardship Brunch – Will be October 29rd following the 10:00am service. Cheese Strata and Oatmeal will be provided bring fruit, juice or a dish to pass and your PLEDGE card.

All Saints' Day – If you would like your loved remembered during the service, please submit the names on the sheets provided at the Memorial Desk by Tuesday October 25th.

Sip & Chat – Enjoy a cup of coffee or tea, share in a discussion and meet new friends. Wednesday Oct. 25th at 1:00 – 2:30pm at the Broome West Senior Center in Endicott on Wayne Street. Speaker is Amie Reilly to talk on financial crimes (ID theft and scams) There is no fee for this program, but registration is required and limited to women age 60 and older.

Get There Center – Are you having difficulty getting to your healthcare appointment. You can call the center for transportation information at 1-855-373-4040 Monday – Friday 7:00am – 7:00pm.

Soup for Syria – Book sale and soup supper at the First Congregational Church, 30 Main St. Bing. Nov. 3rd at 5:30pm. The meal is free and the Book is $30.00, The proceeds go to food relief efforts through various nonprofit organizations. Call 644-0736 for reservations by Nov. 1st.