Feast of St. Augustine of Hippo, 430

We have this perfect vision of a saint—forgetting that Jesus was and is the only one without sin. That perfect vision of a saint can prevent us from realizing that saints are great role model for the rest of us precisely because they are not perfect. St. Augustine of Hippo (454-430) is a case in point. Despite being raised by a Christian mother, St. Monica, he waited until he was 32 to be baptized. He led a rather dissolute life prior to his baptism: attracted to Manichaeism, a Persian/Iranian dualistic faith, and Neo-Platonism; at age 17 began a 15 year affair with a Carthaginian woman producing a child; ended that relationship to marry a young heiress; broke off that engagement to be baptized and become a celibate priest! (Makes one understand though one of his most famous quotes from Confessions of Augustine, Book VIII, 7, “Give me chastity and self-control, but not yet.”) After this rather shaky Christian start nevertheless Augustine became one of the greatest theologians in Western Christianity. There’s hope for all of us!

The month of September is still part of the season of Trinity, Sundays after Pentecost, AKA Ordinary Time. However, that does not mean it is at all ordinary at All Saints’—activity picks up:

- Sunday, September 8th is the Community & Welcome Back Picnic;
- Wednesday, September 11th is “It Takes a Community to Heal” presentation at Christ Church;
- Friday, September 13th -Sunday, September 15th is a New Beginnings Retreat for grades 6-8;
- Sunday, September 15th at 10:00am—Sunday School resumes for Toddlers-age 11;
- Wednesday, September 18th at 6:30pm “Gather-Transform-Send” Workshop at Christ Church/
- Saturday, September 21st at 6:00pm and Sunday, September 22nd at 11:30am Coffee Hour Talk “Jail Ministry”; and
- Plus, the usual Saturday Eucharist at 5:00pm and Sunday Eucharist with choir at 10:00am; Soup & Sandwiches Saturdays every Saturday at 12 noon; Learning Community Initiatives Team and parish projects continue; Vestry on Wednesday, September 11th at 6:30pm; CHOW Pantry Mondays-Thursdays; etc.

Faithfully yours,

The Very Rev. Christine J Day,

Rector

The Planning Committee, previously the Long-Term Planning Committee, continues to meet on a regular basis. We have received some direction from the Vestry to work on how we use time, talent and treasure for the betterment of our parish. We hope that members of the Vestry and our committee will work together to reach out to other churches in our community. Our next meeting is September 4th at 5:30pm in the library.

Don Thorpe, Chair of the Planning Committee

Gratitude for the Community of Faith

Take a minute to ground yourself, close your eyes, and breathe deeply. Our lives are rushed and filled with worries about our church, our community, and the people we love. In the midst of the turmoil of life, take a moment to ground yourself. Remember that you are created in the image of God, remember that God has called you by name to do this work and has given you all you need to do it. We often need to be reminded that we have been called and that God has given us all we need. The community of faith is there to constantly remind us of this, especially when the path gets difficult or the trees are too thick to see the way. Allow your heart to fill with love and gratitude for your community of faith and for those who walk with you on the journey.

The Rev. Kristen Looney

Director of Partnerships, Religious Freedom Center of the Newseum Institute, Washington, DC

ALL SAINTS' COMMUNITY & WELCOME BACK PICNIC SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8th CIRCA 11:30 AM

Last year's 100th Anniversary Community Picnic was such a success, that we've decided to do it again in 2019. Invite the neighborhood and parish for hot dogs, hamburgers, salt potatoes, coleslaw, cake (yum!), bubbles, corn hole and prayer scarves! Obviously 101st Anniversary doesn't have much of a ring to it so it's just the All Saints' Community & Welcome Back Picnic on Sunday, September 8th after the 10 am celebration of Holy Eucharist. Warden Joy Kasmarcik is coordinating the picnic with the help of the Learning Community Initiatives team and vestry. Invitations to the neighborhood will be done door-to-door one to two weeks before the picnic. Want to help? Call or e-mail Joy Kasmarcik (585-285-0013 or JKasmarcik@stny.rr.com).

It Takes Community to Heal

Come to Christ Church (Binghamton) on Wednesday, September 11th at 6:30pm to hear the Rev. Deacon Kay Drebert, LMSW present “It Takes a Community to Heal.” Deacon Kay will give an overview of the addiction and recovery continuum which will include theories of addiction, the science of addiction and current addiction trends. A closing discussion, with a faith-based perspective, will focus on the impact of addiction on the individual, our families, and our communities. Christ Church is located at 10 Henry Street, Binghamton, NY.

LIFE GOES ON MEETING FOR SEPTEMBER 18TH

These meetings will have their location announced in church as locations were not available at time of going to press for Crossways. If you are planning to attend, please phone Arlene Foley at 797-2111 or Eileen Patch at 754-2372 to aid in planning the group's reservation. Meetings are usually the third Wednesday of the month.

What is a congregation for?

One way of describing the unique purpose and work of a congregation is that a congregation gathers people into Christ's body, the Church—a community that transforms minds, hearts, and behaviors—and sends these same people into the world to be God's loving, liberating, life-giving presence.

This free workshop presents the "Gather-Transform-Send" model as a lens to look at how God is at work in our congregations, how we're partnering with God, and how God is calling us into creativity and renewal. You'll learn how to apply and share this model in your own congregation and ministry.

The workshop will be led by members of our diocesan Congregational Development team who have been trained through the College for Congregational Development.

BOOK CLUB TO MEET WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25th
AT 5:30PM AT THE RECTORY:
READING BARBARA BROWN TAYLOR’S *HOLY ENVY

The Book Club will meet on Wednesday, September 25th at 5:30pm at the Rectory. (Yes, we are no longer on the “Summer Schedule” of Thursdays!) The Book Club is continuing to read, Barbara Brown Taylor’s Holy Envy: Finding God in the Faith of Others. In Holy Envy Barbara Brown Taylor weaves stories from her college classroom in rural Georgia with reflections on how her own spiritual journey has been complicated and renewed by connecting with people of other traditions—even those whose truths are quite different from hers. The one constant is the sense that God is calling her to change her version of God, a change that ultimately enriches her faith in other human beings and in God.

The Market Place

The Market Place section in our Crossways is to list items to give away, barter, sell for a few dollars or ask for whatever. This could be noted as Fr=Free, Tr=Trade, $, $$, Mkt=Market Now. This is basically a way to connect to people in the Parish to whom you already may know or have said hello. Maybe you are downsizing your home and have a need to get rid of stuff, or your child has outgrown their shoes or sneakers. This is another ministry to give a helping hand and to help yourself as well. Along with your name, be clear and briefly descriptive of your items as possible. We hope this new offering will be beneficial to all who participate.

Please send your items to garyz2353@aol.com for publishing in the time frame he sets. Remember he and the office have nothing to do with your exchange. It will be between the buyer/trader and seller/trader only.

The following is an actual entry to provide specifics to assist everyone submit:

CHOW WALK OCTOBER 6TH

Linda Barkman will be participating in the CHOW walk October 6th. It is being held at Otsinigo Park this year. Registration is a 1:00 pm with the walk starts at 2:00pm. If anyone is interested in walking, see Linda. If you would like to sponsor Linda or anyone else walking, she will take your pledge and walk for you.

Also there has been a significant drop in contributions of CHOW items. Please reconsider to determine if you can supply CHOW items as listed in the weekly announcements. Thank you.

SAVE THE DATE: ST. FRANCIS DAY TO BE CELEBRATED ON OCTOBER 5th AND 6th

Come celebrate St. Francis Day with us and bring your pets for the Blessing of Animals at the Saturday, October 5th 5:00pm and Sunday, October 6th 10:00am celebrations of Holy Eucharist. St. Francis of Assisi (October 4th) is the patron saint of all animals. We hope that you will bring your pet to church to receive a blessing in a brief liturgy following the post communion prayer. (This will enable one to bolt out and retrieve "Rover" from elsewhere if you are keeping "Rover" somewhere else during the service.) Please have all dogs on leads and exercised before the service. Cats and other small creatures tend to be happier in carriers or crates, or you can just bring a photograph of your pet. Or perhaps your house is pet-less (Don't tell +Alphege or +Thomas Cranmer!) consider bringing a stuffed animal. As the song says, "All God's creatures have a place in the choir!"

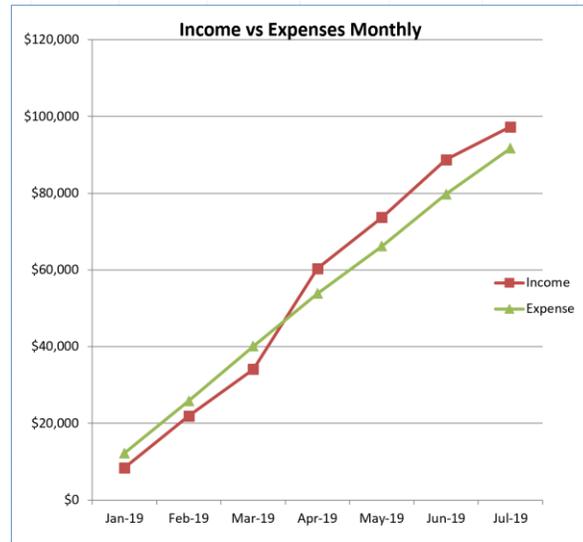

"Fly Me To The Moon"

- that's how you get to Cabaret 2019! In honor of the 50th anniversary of the moon landing, we have decided to put on a show with a moon theme. Cabaret will be Saturday, November 23rd with the show starting at 7:00 pm and doors opening at 6:30 pm for seating and checking out our basket silent auction. The price is still a reasonable $12.00. Much more info will be forthcoming, but, as always, we need volunteers and donations of baskets, finger foods, and cash. This fund raiser is more important than ever this year because we did not have the income from the JC Field Days booth. Please give your all-out support for this fun event and help make it our best one yet. If you do that, we'll love you "to the moon and back!"

God's kids say & do the funniest things

"My 4-year-old grandniece, Ellery, who lives in Colorado, likes to run around half-dressed. Her Mom is British and her Dad is American.

"When Grandma was visiting, she was getting the kids ready to go on an outing. Ellery came out of her room wearing leggings and a shirt, but there were no underwear lines under the leggings.

"Grandma asked, 'Did you put on your knickers (underwear)? You can't go out without them.'

"Ellery quickly replied, 'I'm wearing camouflage knickers!'"

– Rev. Barbara Bartholomew
Grace Lutheran Church
Wadsworth, OH

After Joy Voss of Richmond, VA, picked up her 4-year-old daughter, Chara, at her Christian nursery school, the following conversation took place:

Chara: "I can't wait to see God."

Mom: "What do you think He looks like?"

Chara: "Well, he has a yellow cape, and a bald head... but not completely bald. He has a little hair on the sides. He has blue eyes."

Mom: "How old do you think He is?"

Chara: "Hm... not that old. Not as old as you. How old are you?"

Mom: "47."

Chara: "Definitely not that old. He's probably just 5. That's a good number."

The "Chatterbox" Approach

"Hello, may I please speak with Mrs. Johnson?" "Oh, you want to talk to me? Thank you so much; that's so kind of you! I don't get many callers; in fact, I don't get to talk to many people, period, so this is going to be wonderful. Mrs. Milliguddy next door always used to stop in to see how I was doing, but now with her gout she isn't able to get here anymore, and because I'm pretty much confined to home, I really don't have much of a chance to talk. My son does stop in twice a week to see if I need anything, but he's always so busy – you know how that goes – so he isn't able to visit very long. I keep telling him to bring Marilyn – that's his wife – and the kids over to see me, but they never seem to have the time. Just between us, I think he wants to, but Marilyn won't let him. She's never liked me, you know, at least not since their wedding reception when I made that innocent little remark about her gown being so skimpy. After all, it wasn't my fault that she looked like a shameless hussy – and on her wedding day, of all things! – and I don't know why she and her mother and sister were so offended. People are so touchy these days. Why, do you know, just last week..."

(By this point, most telemarketers – after several fruitless attempts to interrupt – will have hung up in frustration.)

The Final Word

“But Moses pleaded with the Lord, “O Lord, I’m just not a good speaker”.....”Who makes mouths?” the Lord asked him....Now go, and do as I have told you. I will help you speak well....”

Exodus 4: 10-12

“Moses was not a gifted speaker. He knew his limitations. Understanding our limitations and working with them is good if it keeps us from getting in over our heads. But we must not use our limitations as an excuse for avoiding what God calls us to do. God called Moses to travel to Egypt to help free the Hebrews from slavery. To do this Moses would have to speak to the ruler of the land—in fact, the mightiest man in the world. But Moses had a speech problem. Did he think God didn’t realize that?

Sometimes God uses our limitations to teach us to rely more on his power. When Moses stepped out in faith and obeyed God, God stretched the boundaries of his abilities. He also provided a resource, Moses’ brother, Aaron, to help. Never limit God, who can do anything through you if you let him.”NLT - GZ
