The Newsletter of All Saints' Episcopal Church, Johnson City, NY

March 2020
Vol. 67 No. 2

28 February 2020
Feast of Anna Julia Haywood Cooper and Elizabeth Evelyn Wright
Educators, 1859-1964, 1872-1904

Dear Friends in Christ,

Anna Julia Haywood Cooper and Elizabeth Evelyn Wright are two saints who are not part of this year's Lenten Madness, so you won't get a chance to vote for them during Lenten Madness. But like all saints recognized in Holy Women, Holy Men, Anna Julia Haywood Cooper's and Elizabeth Evelyn Wright's lives are a witness to their faith and serve as role models for all of us.

Anna Julia Haywood Cooper was born about 1859 in North Carolina to an enslaved woman and a white man, presumed to be her master. She was an American author, educator, sociologist, speaker, Black Liberation activist, and one of the most prominent African-American scholars in United States history. She received degrees from Oberlin College and at the age of 65 completed a doctorate at the Sorbonne, Paris.

Elizabeth Evelyn Wright was born in Georgia in 1872 to an African American father and a Cherokee mother. She was a humanitarian, educator, founder of several schools for black children and founder of the Denmark Industrial Institute which became Voorhees College, South Carolina, a HBCU and affiliated with the Episcopal Church. She received her degree from the Tuskegee Institute.

This year Ash Wednesday, February 26th, the beginning of Lent is about two-thirds of the way through the possible dates possible, February 4-March 10. This has given us seven Sundays of Epiphany, the season of light and revelation—a wonderful contrast to the six weeks self-examination, repentance, prayer, fasting, reading and meditating of Lent. I invite you to the observance of a holy Lent.

Faithfully yours,

The Very Rev. Christine J. Day
Rector

Vestry Synopsis for February

- Stewardship Committee: Don Thorpe gave report. They will manage the Stewardship for this year and would like to have everyone think about what All Saints' means to you. This month Arlene Huyck tells her feelings.
- Vestry continued "Dwelling in the Word" discussions.
- Treasurer's report: Available in the rack by the bulletin board over the pew in the narthex.
 - 2020 budget was discussed. Changes will be made to reflect new money received and the 2019 Parochial Report was reviewed and approved to be sent to the Diocese.
- Scout Report: Scouts Sunday went well and was well attended. The Cub Scouts will be having a lock down in our Great Hall on April 18th from 6:30pm until 8:00am Sunday morning. The Scouts requested approval to have a Chicken BBQ on May 23rd using our pit and sauce.
- Hospitality Report: Mittens for CHOW and Soup and Sandwich are still being collected. A chili cook-off will be held on Mardi Gras Sunday. Our summer picnic with Christ Church will be August 23rd.
- Fundraising: Our next fund raiser will be the May 9th Chicken BBQ. Vestry would also like to have a Trivia night and a bake sale or if anyone has an idea see someone on the vestry.
- Building and grounds: A part for the one boiler was received and installed but boiler is still not working correctly.
- Outreach Report: Maine Endwell Key club has started volunteering.
- CHOW: Numbers have been down a little bit from previous months, it should pick up when the weather gets better.
- Diocesan & Beyond: "Faith Development in Community Workshop" March 24, 2020 at St. Paul's in Endicott. We are sharing Holy week with Christ Church (Maundy Thursday at Christ Church and Easter Vigil at All Saints') Diocesan Convention is November 13-14 with Presiding Bishop Michael Curry.

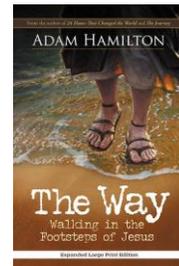

It's time to vote for who you wish to win the Golden Halo in Lent 2020! The 2020 bracket—already out—will be posted and updated in the Narthex during Lent. This year's saints include heavyweights such as Patrick, Harriet Tubman, Clare of Assisi, Hildegard of Bingen, Joseph, and Jude, along with many lesser known yet equally inspiring people of faith. As a reminder, or if you're new to this wacky online devotion, here's how Lent Madness works: on the weekdays of Lent, information is posted at www.lentmadness.org about two different saints. Each pairing remains open for 24 hours as participants read about and then vote (at www.lentmadness.org just once!) to determine which saint moves on to the next round.

- | | |
|--|--|
| Thomas More vs James the Less | Andrew vs Elizabeth |
| Margery Kempe vs Eustace | Eva Lee Matthews vs Herve |
| Elizabeth of Hungry vs Herman of Alaska | Joseph vs Joshua |
| Brother Lawrence vs Patrick | Margaret of Castello vs Simon Gibbons |
| James Solomon Russell vs Evelyn Underhill | Jude vs Bartimeus |
| Hildegard of Bingen vs Romanos the Melodist | Elizabeth Fry vs Florian |
| Harriet Tubman vs Julie Billiart | Joanna the Myrrhbearer |
| Gregory of Nazianzus vs Elizabeth the New Martyr | Claire of Assisi vs Isadore of Seville |

On your mark, get set, vote for your favorite saint!

COME SUNDAYS AT 5:00 PM BEGINNING MARCH 1st FOR THE LENT PROGRAM: ADAM HAMILTON'S THE WAY: WALKING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF JESUS.

Part of the “invitation to a holy Lent” on Ash Wednesday asks Christians to consider observing Lent by self-examination and repentance, by prayer and and fasting and self-denial, and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word. One can do all the above by attending this year’s Lenten Program: The Way: Walking in the Footsteps of Jesus on Sundays at 5:00pm beginning Sunday, March 1st. The program will continue Sundays March 8th, March 15th, March 22nd, March 29th, and April 5th. Each session will begin with a simple bread and soup supper in the Library followed by the program. The evening will conclude with a Taize Compline in the Chapel at 7:00pm.

The Way, using a book and video, invites you to travel with Adam Hamilton as he retraces the life and ministry of Jesus Christ in his last week. Fascinating video from his personal travels to the Holy Land give you a “first-person” experience while his biblical wisdom and historical knowledge provide thoughtful and insightful commentary. We'll be using the new Expanded Large-Print edition which includes devotions for each chapter and photos from Adam's trip to the Holy Lands.

Interested? Pick up one of the books in the office ($11.99) and sign-up in the Narthex. Volunteers are needed to bring soup at each session. See you on March 1st!

Apostle: James

James, the Elder, Boanerges, son of Zebedee and Salome, brother of John the Apostle; a fisherman who lived in Bethsaida, Capernaum and Jerusalem. He preached in Jerusalem and Judea and was beheaded by Herod, AD 44 (Acts 12:1,2). He was a member of the Inner Circle, so called because they were accorded special privileges. The New Testament tells us very little about James. His name never appears apart from that of his brother, John. They were an inseparable pair (Mark 1:19-20; Matthew 4:21; Luke 5:1-11).

He was a man of courage and forgiveness, a man without jealousy, living in the shadow of John, a man of extraordinary faith. He was the first of the twelve to become a martyr. His symbol is three shells, the sign of his pilgrimage by the sea.

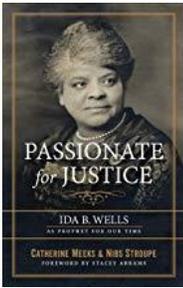

The above was taken from BibleInfo.com and used with permission.

From your Editor: I will be doing one apostle each month. Let me know if there is a specific apostle whom you would like next.

LIFE GOES ON IS SCHEDULED TO MEET
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18th AT 12:15PM!

LOCATION: THE SPOT RESTAURANT ON UPPER FRONT STREET

BOOK CLUB TO MEET MARCH 25th AT 5:30 PM
AT THE RECTORY: FINISHING PASSIONATE FOR JUSTICE:
*IDA B. WELLS AS A PROPHET FOR OUR TIME AND STARTING ????

Since the Ash Wednesday meeting of the Book Club will be the first one to discuss Passionate for Justice: Ida B. Wells as a Prophet for our Time and it will happen after the March Crossways goes to press, the Book Club will either be finishing up, Passionate for Justice or starting a new book. Here's the publisher's blurb for Passionate for Justice:

“[Ida B. Well’s] life is a profound witness for faith-based work of visionary power, resistance, and resilience for today’s world, when the forces of injustice stand in opposition to progress.

“These are exciting and dangerous times. Boundaries that previously seemed impenetrable are now being crossed. This book is a guide for the current state of affairs in American culture, enlivened by the historical perspective of Wells’ search for justice.

The authors are an African American woman and a child of white supremacy. Both have dedicated themselves to working, writing, and developing ministries oriented toward justice, equity, and mercy. “”

What might Book Club read after Passionate for Justice? Rachel Held Evans’ book—Inspired: Slaying Giants, Walking on Water and Loving the Bible Again or Olive, Again by Elizabeth Strout or The Dutch House: A Novel by Ann Patchett or...The pace of the reading for Book Club is set by the members. Interested? Ask the Rector or Linda what the Book Club is reading for March, get a copy and come on Wednesday March 25th at 5:30 pm and let’s talk!

THE LCI TEAM NEEDS YOUR HELP:
GIVE US FEEDBACK
BY MAKING AN LCI FLAG!

The All Saints' Learning Community Initiatives (LCI) Team wants to qualify and quantify the growth and transformation that is a result of Learning Community Initiatives. At present the LCI Team has only observed or heard about in antidotes the following:

- That many in the congregation after a number of sessions of “Dwelling in the Word” in lieu of a sermon may now be listening more intently to the Scripture readings at other worship services;
- That some in the congregation continue to engage in the Scripture even afterwards by discussing points with others in the congregation after the services;
- That some who participate in the weekly sessions of “Dwelling in the Word” have changed the way they read Scripture in their private spiritual practices—it has deepened their spiritual life; and
- Still others in the congregation hate “Dwelling in the Word” and “Listening to Others” and share their feelings about the Learning Community Initiatives with others which doesn't help the process.

As the Learning Experiment has worked well to enable people to write their prayers on Prayer Scarves, the LCI Team has decided to do something similar to gather feedback about “Dwelling in the Word” and “Listening to Others”: a LCI Flag! The weekend after the next “Dwelling in the Word” in lieu of sermon session, parishioners will be encouraged to write on a flag pennant and express their thoughts. For example, perhaps:

- Dwelling in the Word has changed the way I hear scripture, or
- I like Dwelling in the Word because of the insights I hear from others, or
- Dwelling in the Word is difficult for me because there is too little time to share, or
- I wish we could do Dwelling in the Word outside of worship because...

You get the idea. For those suffering from writer's block there'll be a list of nouns, descriptors and feelings so the word-blocked writer is able to fill-in-the-blank.

LENTEN SOUP BOX OFFERINGS

Our Lenten special offering supports our Saturday Soup and Sandwiches Lunch Program. The number of people we serve keeps going up with most weeks having about 60-70 participants and a few weeks we served over 90! We are sure that there are many folks who have come to depend on our program. My hope is that we can again raise enough money to continue without busting the church's budget.

This is how it works. Many people give something up during Lent. For example, chocolate, or between meal snacks, or their daily lottery ticket. The money saved is put into a soup box (provided by the Sunday School) and collected on Easter Day. In the narthex you will find “Soup Boxes” created by our Church School Program. All monies collected go toward the funds used to provide lunches every Saturday.

LENTEN OPPORTUNITIES THROUGHOUT THE SOUTHERN TIER EAST DISTRICT: LENT 2020

Can't make it to All Saints' Lent program, The Way: Walking in the Footsteps of Jesus on Sundays beginning March 1st at 5:00 pm or the Lenten Taize Compline which follows at 7:00 pm? Don't despair! Consider going to Christ Church (Binghamton), St. Mark's (Chenango Bridge), St. Paul's (Endicott) or Trinity Memorial (Binghamton) for some Lenten soul food:

- Christ Church (10 Henry Street, Binghamton) FRIDAYS in Lent at 5pm starts off with a Soup Dinner, followed by Stations of the Cross, and then a discussion of Rachel Held Evans' book—Inspired: Slaying Giants, Walking on Water and Loving the Bible Again.
- St. Mark's (728 River Road, Chenango Bridge) 6:00 pm SUNDAYS “Stations & Music & Meditation” followed by a Soup Supper
- St. Paul's (200 Jefferson Avenue, Endicott) WEDNESDAYS at 5:00 pm Holy Eucharist followed by dinner and the series “Health and Spirituality” given by different presenters
- Trinity Memorial (44 Main Street, Binghamton) WEDNESDAY nights, an Organ Concert followed by a Soup Supper.

A Note from Deacon Dorothy:

Part of the deacon ministry that God has called me to do is being a volunteer for Hospice. This involves helping to give compassionate presence, care, and support to persons during their end-of-life process. This is tender, spiritual, loving, and meaningful time spent with persons in their homes or in the hospital or at a nursing facility. It is my hope that you will join in this beautiful ministry with me. If you are interested in becoming a Hospice volunteer, you can call Bettye Canestaro, Hospice Volunteer Coordinator on Old Vestal Road at 584-9159. A training is planned for March. You may also call me at 692-2126 if you have questions.

CABARET AT UNION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Get ready for another Cabaret – no, not at All Saints’, but at Union Presbyterian Church on Saturday, March 28th. More details will be forthcoming. Our favorite magician, Jerry Natoli, is in charge and folks from his church do support our Cabaret. They get great entertainment (including some of our own members,) and do a nice show every year, so get a group together and plan a fun evening out to help another church's good cause.

WORK PARTY SATURDAY APRIL 4th 9:00 AM-3:00 PM

CHURCH WORKDAY

There will be a work party for cleaning the church in preparation for Easter and Holy Week. We will start at 9:00 AM and hope to finish around 3:00 PM. We would like the grounds as well as inside the church to look nice for Palm Sunday and Easter. Please bring window cleaning materials, dust cloths and anything else that you might have to clean inside the church. If weather permits, we will clean up outside, so please bring rakes and other outside tools. The more help we have, the more work we will accomplish. There will be assignments that can be done by both men and women.

Property Committee

CALLING ALL ALTAR GUILD MEMBERS, VOLUNTEERS, PURIFICATORS, CORPORALS, BRASS AND SILVER POLISH: SATURDAY APRIL 4th at 9:00 AM

We will all meet at church at 9:00am on Saturday April 4th to clean the silver and strip the palms for Palm Sunday. If anyone has questions or concerns, please call Judy Horton so a meeting can be set up before we start work. Judy will make coffee and bring some cookies so please plan on coming and helping. Many hands make light work!

Please check your laundry baskets for Altar linens. With extra services every week during Lent it is important to return the Linens every week, particularly Holy Week. Your help during this very busy time is very much appreciated.

PALM SUNDAY WEEKEND LITURGY ON APRIL 4TH AT 5:00 PM & ON APRIL 5TH AT 10:00 AM BEGINS WITH A PROCESSION AND THE JOURNEY CONTINUES USING PROJECTED IMAGES AND DRAMA

On Palm Sunday Jesus began his Passion by a triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Come and join the choir and church school in the singing of “All Glory Laud and Honor” as we process around the church. Throughout the service paintings and artwork depicting Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem and the Passion will be projected on to the wall of the chancel—you’ll want to sit off the center aisle to get the best view of the images. After the Collect and lessons from the Old and New Testaments, Prayers of the People, the Peace and Offertory, the dramatic reading of the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke will begin.

When the Passion reading reaches the Last Supper, we will pause to celebrate Holy Communion surrounded by depictions of the Upper Room. Following Communion, the dramatic reading of the Passion will continue. The liturgy will end with a solemn blessing and dismissal from the Book of Occasional Services. Get ready for Easter by hearing and seeing the full story of Holy Week!

EXPERIENCE THE DISTRICT GREAT VIGIL OF EASTER ON SATURDAY, APRIL 11th AT 8:00 PM AT ALL SAINTS’

The Great Vigil of Easter is one of the oldest liturgies in the Church. It is a graceful and meandering service that around a “liturgical campfire” gathers the faith community in the Easter Light of Christ to tell the story of salvation history and celebrate the first Easter with baptisms and Holy Eucharist. This year the Southern Tier East District’s Great Vigil of Easter will be held at All Saints’ at 8:00 PM! During the Liturgy of the Word art work will be projected. Then when “Gloria” begins and the lights come on in the chancel the first Eucharist of Easter will be celebrated. The Rev. Dcn. Dorothy Pierce, District Deacon, will sing the “Exsultet,” proclaim the Gospel and serve at the altar. Con-celebrating the Eucharist will be Mother Chris and Mother Elizabeth and Father Jim from Christ Church. The choirs of Christ Church and All Saints’ will sing under the leadership of All Saints’ choral director and organist, John Isenberg. After the liturgy, there will be ice cream sundaes for all!

What a way to break the Lenten fast! Please join everyone in the District for this ancient celebration of our Lord’s resurrection. Come to the Vigil and get an early start on Easter!

SUNDAY, APRIL 12TH AT 10:00 AM

Festival Choral Holy Eucharist of Our Lord's Resurrection Easter

Because of the Easter Vigil, see above, there will not be a 5 PM celebration of Holy Eucharist on Saturday, April 11, 2020.

EASTER EGG HUNT ON EASTER SUNDAY, APRIL 12TH!

All children are invited to participate in All Saints' Easter Egg Hunt on Easter Sunday, April 12th after the 10:00 AM Festival Celebration of Holy Eucharist. Come and search high and low on the church grounds (weather pending) for chocolate and candy eggs as well other treats and prizes. There will be special large eggs with appropriate filling for our toddlers with toddler friendly food inside. Who will find the most eggs? Who will find the prettiest eggs? Come and find out while enjoying a casual coffee hour sponsored by Christian Ed!

Save these dates: Tuesday, March 24, 2020 "Faith Development in Community Workshop", 6:30-8:30 pm, St. Paul's, Endicott

Monday, March 30, 2020 Blessing of Oils & Renewal of Vows, 12 noon at Trinity Memorial, Binghamton

The following is a link directly to Safe Church which some of our parishioners need to complete once every five years.

Who Should Be Trained?

All members of our churches are encouraged to participate in Safe Church Training. The more informed and aware we are, the safer our churches will be for all children and adults.

Individuals who complete the three-hour Safe Church Training workshop are awarded a certificate.

Certification is valid for five years and may be renewed by attending the workshop again or completing Safeguarding Online. The following individuals are required to have up-to-date Safe Church certificates:

- Clergy
- Vestry members
- Parish employees
- Worship Leaders, Lay Ministers & Eucharistic Visitors
- Anyone volunteering or working with children in any capacity

All Youth Leaders under the age of 16 are required to attend Safe Church for Teens training annually, and all youth in the Diocese are encouraged to take this training.

A friend of Rev. Dr. Karl R. Kraft of Dover, DE, passed along this anecdote about his 10-year-old niece. His sister had been ill, so he called to see how she was doing. His niece answered the phone.

"Hello," she whispered.

"Hi, Honey. How's your mother doing?" her uncle asked.

"She's sleeping," she answered, again in a whisper.

"Did she go to the doctor?" he asked.

"Yes. She got some medicine," the niece said softly.

"Well, don't wake her. Just tell her I called. What are you doing, by the way?"

Again in a very soft whisper, she answered, "Practicing my trumpet."

God's kids say & do the funniest things

When he returned from Sunday school, a small boy was asked by his father what he had learned.

The boy replied: "The teacher told us the story about God sending Moses to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. When they got to the Red Sea, Moses and his engineers built a pontoon bridge. Everyone walked across to safety. Then Moses used his walkie-talkie to call headquarters for reinforcements. They sent bombers to blow up the bridge, and the Israelites were saved from the Egyptian soldiers."

"Are you sure that's what the teacher taught you?" his father asked.

"Well, not exactly, Dad," the boy answered, "but if I told it the way the teacher did, you'd never believe it."

Perseverance: “Let this encourage God’s holy people to endure persecution patiently and remain firm to the end, obeying his commands and trusting in Jesus……” Revelation 14:12

“Whether you are an athlete undergoing grueling physical conditioning, an employee struggling under a mountain of work, or a Christian suffering persecution, the key to perseverance is a clear vision of the goal. While the goal of an athlete is to win the race and the goal of the employee is a job well done, the goal of the believer is nothing less than eternity in the presence of the Lord. The writer of Revelation encourages Christians to keep their eyes on Jesus, who will reward the faithful, and to obey his Word to the end. When you feel like giving up, remember the glory that awaits you as a child of God” NLT - GZ
